Old Business:

1. Mike Kushner asked how the banquet was. Rick Kuhns said it was great; however the cat supply was down the next day.
2. Bob announced that the "Nazi letters" were sent out and that everyone should know what their balance is.
3. Kay wanted everyone's address and phone numbers so that she could make an updated list.

New Business:

1. Gary Cowen asked if he could get a blind for the big window in the clubhouse, so that the sun wouldn't wake him in the morning. Everyone agreed that he could buy one and put it up.
2. Rick Kuhns made mention of the banquet, and how Tom Check was honored for his military service. He thought that others who were serving should be thanked also. He just thought that we should show our appreciation. Rick then said that he was going to give our new pilot, Mark, a hand full of bumper stickers to take back to Iraq.
3. Paul Waschak mentioned that the lights in the clubhouse should be tended to; there are a few that are out.
4. Bob Tyson announced that Ryan Hall had his first cutaway today, and asked him to tell what happened. He said that he had deployed his main but that something didn't feel right, and he looked up to find that both canopies were out. He said he really didn't know what to do. At that point his son burst into the room complaining that his brother had broke the train. The timing was perfect. After settling his son down, he continued his story. A discussion followed.
5. Rick Kuhns reported on his experience at the Arizona Classic. He had a good time. The team Skydive Racks took 3rd place. Rick placed 7th, John Wolfe 8th, Jim Hayhurst 9th, and Jimmy 10th. The French team took all the top spots, and Rick was the first individual after the national teams to place. The French team was fun to go to dinner with, they were pretty nice guys. Team Skydive Ricks were "themed".
6. Jimmy Drummond was invited to be part of the American Team, for the meet in Russia. Jimmy said he wasn't going because it costs too much. It would cost $5000 for 6 to 10 jumps.
7. Rick Kuhns announced that he had purchased a golf cart for Joannie to ride around in. Joannie said it was a nice one too. Rick also laid down the LAW about its use. There will be no horsin' around on it. If he catches someone horsin' around on it, they will be banished to foot mode.
