Old Business:

1. "ABC" asked about where the clubs money was on deposit, and what rate it was getting. He said that if you had a $10,000 minimum you could get over 2% at National City bank. Joannie said she would check into it but our money was at Farmers bank right now and we were getting less than 1%.
2. Bob made mention about how long his tongue was and Maggie exclaimed with glee that, "That's why Bob's initials are "BT" (Big Tongue). A "lengthy" discussion then ensued about Bob's tongue and it's many uses.
3. BANQUET: Will be on the 28th everything is set. Kay has been working with vendors and we have commitments from Bev Suit, Birdman, Relative Workshop, Infinity containers, Para Gear, and Parachute Equipment Corp. Bob will have a year end video.
4. Heat Runs are into the clubroom, however they don't work. Dave George, Geronimo, Rick, Jared, Chris, and Skippy all helped on the fruitless effort. The installation will be re-evaluated in the future.
5. Randy Persi is still missing his "Pulp Fiction" CD and would like it found. Randy was nice enough to let us watch it during the bad weather, a concerted effort should be made to find it.

New Business:

1. POWER LINES: Rick made mention that there are now power lines running through the big field North of the airport. They run East to West through the middle and a spur runs from of the middle of the line to the South to the new mine on 617.
