Old Business:

1. Shawn stated he will deduct the cost of the banquet from your dues if Joanie doesn't receive your money before the banquet or if you do not pay her at the banquet.
2. Howard said he talked to a friend from Arizona. The weather was very nice out there.
3. Rick said Kay called at 2:30 and stated that the temperature was 75 degrees.

New Business:

1. Robb Scherer stated Carl had been operated on, on Monday and the procedure took longer than anticipated. He came thru okay and went home on Friday. He is in a lot of pain but, said he is doing alright.
2. Ben asked about safety day. Chuck said March 11 (Sunday)
3. Howard then stated he was leaving to go to Hawaii, then Fiji, then he would be going to Australia for a month! Shawn asked if he had ever been to Australia before? Howard said no. Case of beer! Howard said he wanted to catch a kangaroo while he was there. He would be traveling by train, skydiving, scuba-diving, and taking lots of pictures!
4. Shawn said he received an E-mail from Johnny K. He had been hit in the head and knocked out briefly. He said he was doing alright and wanted to get back jumping soon.
5. Shawn also talked to Jared. Jared said he was done with his training and he would be working with traffic, but that it would be under supervision.
6. Jared also told Shawn that he is one of the more experienced skydivers at Cathy's. Jared stated he was getting students off the AFF training for more instruction, and that he wasn't doing S/L. He said he was going to have to work weekends so he would have to give up his training.
7. Howard said he renewed his USPA membership, had his card a week, and then received his second notice to renew. He questioned their method to save money and then stated something about Washington and how everything gets sucked in to wasting money.
8. Shawn said Sherry Butcher, our new National Director will attend our banquet and that our new Regional Director, Kip Lohmiller would also try to attend.
