Old Business:

1. Paul Waschak asked about the progress of running heat into the clubroom. Dave George immediately said that he would head up the committee to get it done and asked for volunteers. Chris Gear and Skippy said they would help. Plans were made to get started a 1:00 PM tomorrow.

New Business:

1. BANQUET: Will be held on February 26th at the Eagles Lodge in East Palestine at 6:30PM, Bev will do the catering and Chris's cousin Neil will be the DJ. Bob asked for volunteers to get door prizes because he over promised a lot to the vendors so they would donate last year. For some reason the vendor's no longer trust Bob. Bob says he has a list of phone numbers he will give to anyone that will help, just don't tell the vendors that you know Bob.
2. "Pink" Floyd, former jump pilot at Rick's was killed in an airplane crash last week. Many who flew with Pink thought that he was a great pilot. The crash is still under investigation and many in the club who knew Pink are of the opinion that circumstances beyond his control were to blame. Pink was hymned appropriately.
3. Maggie Less announced that Geronimo was having his annual Christmas party, or post Christmas party, or continuing Christmas party next week. Come to his place between 6:30-7:00.
4. Kay Kuhns reported on her winter vacation. She said that she did more fishing than catching. She also said that she went to the wind tunnel with Rick and had fun riding up and down and up and down for five minutes or so.
5. Randy Persi asked if anyone had seen his Pulp Fiction CD. Several people said that they had watched it. Randy asked if you found it that he would like it returned.
6. Bob Tyson announced that this years dues had been assessed. He suggested that everyone check the board to see that they weren't in the red. He then made it clear that if you were over the limit of credit that you would be grounded. Grumpy was quite worried and became a little agitated at this point.
7. Bob also announced that he had asked Maggie to marry him and that she had said yes. Then he started talking a lot of mushy love stuff and got all dreamy eyed and was gushing all over. Fortunately he didn't trip over his tongue. The tentative date is May 29th, but they haven't been picked yet. They were themed.
