Old Business:

1. Shawn Meyer motioned to put $75 on Robb Scheres' jump bill for the fine job he did on the picnic tables, and he really did do a good job. Seconded by Jimmy, motion passed.
2. ACCURACY CAMP: Cassie reported that Skydive Rick's won the team competition, Team Centerline came in second, and Team CPI was third. Individual standings were; 1st Brian Smith, 2nd Angela Nichols, 3rd Jimmy Drummond, and Tim Weigle finished 5th. Intermediate division; 1st Mark Izzo, 2nd Johnny Caldwell, 3rd Cassie Drummond. Skydive Kay's didn't lose despite having half of their team stolen by Skydive Rick's. There were 21 competitors comprising 6 teams. On the down side Cheryl Stearns and Jim Hayhurst were banged up a bit in practice and had to drop out of the competition. Rick Kuhns wanted to thank everyone for helping out and filling loads and generally being hospitable to the guests. They really seemed to enjoy the company and the facilities. Thanks to Carl Paruben, Joanie Kingsley, Sam McWilliams, Barbara Kellogg and Melissa (Johnny's girl) Rick wanted to thank The ASPC for its generosity in letting the guests use the facility. Everyone should be applauded. We were themed. There was also a good job done in jumping into Whispering Pines by the Golden Knights, US Air Force Academy, and the Drummonds. Kay Kuhns said that there were 351 non-club jumps made that brought in $263.25. Also a big thanks to Tim Weigle for the tent, it was a "lifesaver."
3. BBQ: Flyers went out, reservations need to be in by August 1st. There is a sign up sheet on the pop fridge. Ben & Shawn said they could get firewood. FUN MEET; Shawn was trying to figure out the rules for the fun meet which brought about a long discussion. Shawn will have it sorted out by the next meeting or the BBQ which ever comes first. Still need to get ice.

New Business:

1. Paul Waschak said that we needed supplies for the club. It was motioned by Henry Landgraff to spend $50 and get what we needed, seconded by Cassie Drummond, and passed. We need plates, coffee, mustard, ketchup, sugar, masking tape, forks, Styrofoam cups, paper towels, etc. Paul Was to clean the microwaves and Cassie suggested that the clubhouse needed a good cleaning.
2. Shawn Meyer wanted to get rid of the old computer that has been cluttering the desk. A cleaning date of August 10th the Monday before the BBQ has been set.
3. A discussion on making another CD took place. We will get more info and decide next meeting.
4. The two rookie bumble bee's made their first paying demo into Firestone Park on the 4th of July. That's what the Morning Journal called Henry Landgraff and Ben Kellogg, "Rookies". Henry said that Dave George gave it to them dry and should use Vaseline next time. They did forget the flag and they got to experience "The Pucker Factor". They did a good job.
5. Ben Kellogg asked if Jimmy was planning a tandem course.
6. Paul Waschak asked about the security light on the corner of the building. Henry Landgraff said he would look into it. Shawn Meyer motioned to buy Fluorescent lights for the clubhouse, seconded by Cassie Drummond, passed.
7. Ben Kellogg asked, "Where have all the pull up cords gone?" Rick Kuhns said he might make some.
8. A report on injuries: Larry dislocated his shoulder, Pete cut his hand up in the table saw, Cheryl sprained her knee, and Jim busted his heel.

New Members: Ciprian Marius Ivascu

Ciprian Marius Ivascu Lives in Z-Hills FL in the winter and Gardiner NY in the summer. He is from Romania. He has 3100 jumps and 1800 Tandems. He decided that since he often jumped as a teammate with Skydive Rick's it was only right to join the club. He is 28 years old, and Kay says he needs to go on a diet. The next time he is here he needs to stand on "The Table of Truth" and get grilled. He was accepted as a member.
