

ASPC Minutes: 06/13/2009

Meeting called to order: 9:00pm by Vice President Ben Kellogg....again

Sec Report: The minutes were read and accepted

Treasurers Report: Paul Waschak read the following which is inaccurate since Peter our president went MIA and didn't have the bills ready and Cassie, our treasurer was flittin' about on an airplane and couldn't read the inaccurateness

Pop & Beer Report: N/A

Old Business:

1. BBQ: Johnny Caldwell suggested having Ed Wiancko and his wife play at the BBQ. Kay Kuhn's motioned to have Johnny do that and Henry Landgraaff seconded, motion passed. BBQ will be the 3rd Saturday in August. Ben Kellogg explained how last years fun meet was run, and a discussion took place on different events that may take place this year. Shawn Meyer said he would run the meet a couple of months ago but may live to regret it.
2. Kay Kuhn's asked if Skydive Rick's could purchase the ASPC DVD recorder. Cheryl Stearns asked how the current DVD arrangement was done. A discussion followed. Paul Waschak motioned that we sell the DVD recorder for $50. Cheryl Stearns seconded, motion passed.
3. Picnic tables: Rick commented that Robb Schere needed to give the club the bills fore the outstanding work he did on the picnic table. Robb said he would do that but still had the other table to do yet. Robb was hymmed for his outstanding job.

New Business:

1. Ben Kellogg announced that Jimmy Drummond was promoted to Captain on the Fire Department, and will get his own station with his own employees to do with how he pleases. Kay suggested he would leave a trail for them to follow.
2. Kay Kuhn's announced that Paul Waschak was now a tandem instructor. Paul was half-heartedly hymmed, and he asked if that was the best they could do. So he got a REAL hymn, Fuck him! The egotistical bastard.
3. Kay Kuhn's announced that Bob Tyson got his riggers ticket. He was hymmed. Johnny Caldwell complained that Bob couldn't hear that, so we called Bob and got his answering machine and Hymmed Bob after the beep.
4. Kay Kuhn's complimented Bob on the website and how well it has been constructed and run. He has done a good job. Bob was hymmed for that also. However the pizza delivery guy had just walked in the building when we hymmed Bob and thought we were pissed at him. He was late because he was feeding deer someone else's French fries.
5. Accuracy Camp: Will rum from July 4th though the 10th with a meet held on 11th -12th. There will be a $30 fee for the meet. There will be two classes for the meet Master and Intermediate. There will be no monies awarded, only medals. During the camp jumping will start at 8 am cause Cheryl said so. Jumping will continue until dark. So if you want to fill loads and jump that week you can jump all day.
6. Ken Pentrack announced that Joe Grien had brought in a mixer so you could add music to videos. Thanks Joe!
7. Kay Kuhn's thanked all the pilots for flying this year and a special thanks to our new pilot Bryan Kissel, who has come along real well.

New Members: Molly Howsare

Molly is 28 and is from Greenville Pa. She is going to school in Erie, Pa to become a doctor. She is a nurse presently and wants to be an ER Physician (probably since it was on TV when she grew up) She is a ¼ of a doctor since she finisher her first year of medical school. She has 21 jumps and is on 15-second delays. She has a whopping 1 minute 8 seconds of FF time. She had her helmet on backwards in the airplane, and then got whacked on the lower lip by the radio on opening on her last jump. After initiation, she was voted in.
