

ASPC Minutes: 3/8/2003

Meeting called to order: 6:52pm by Pres. Bob Tyson

Minutes of the previous meeting were read, and accepted, Tom Capiross and Bob Tyson both commented that Paul read the minutes a lot better since his "Wing Loading" was reduced. They were both as giddy as schoolgirls on prom night.

Sec Report: Minutes of the previous meeting were read and accepted.

Treasurers' Report: N/A

Pop & Beer Report: N/A

Old Business:

1. Bob Tyson announced that Kay had purchased a 27" TV for the club. The cost was $199.00. Which, for Jonathan's benefit, was about $7.37 an inch.
2. BANQUET: Kay Kuhns wanted to thank Bob for doing such a great job on the banquet. Bob was hymned. Bob Tyson in turn thanked all those who helped him put the banquet together. Bob did forget to mention at the banquet that Chris Gear and Jimmy Drummond were co-champions for number of jumps last year. He also forgot to mention that Maggie Less was the new women's rookie champion for most jumps in her first year at 170 some. Brian Chagnot should have gotten his 12-hour freefall badge. Brian Chagnot got to go to the banquet through the good graces of the Gwynnes' who were kind enough to bring Brian and let him stay at their house. Brian repaid them by taking the nastiest most disgusting dump in history, which grossed them both out
3. Tom Capiross thanked Rick and Kay, Jim Barger, and Cassie Liberatore for helping out on Safety Day March 8th. Rick thought that the day went pretty well, people were hung and weight and balance was discussed.

New Business:

1. Kay Kuhns announced that Emil of Beaver Valley Skydivers was turning 80 this month and they were throwing him a big party. Rick suggested that the ASCP should send him an e-mail or card.
2. Bob said that the plaque honoring all the clubs lifetime members would be hung as soon as he gets it back.
3. Randy Persi told of the experiences of the Rick Kuhns all-star skydiving team in Florida. It rained a lot and they had to go to Skydive Miami. They slept in a bunkhouse and the other three members couldn't figure out how to get hot water for showers. Randy used his brain and had a nice hot shower. Jimmy "lets make a deal" Drummond bought all kinds of gear at discount prices and is selling it on the net. Jimmy also kicked Guy Manos in the head on a jump.
4. Rick Kuhns announced that since the winter has been so wet this year we may have to shuttle to Elser airport. Rick also announced that jump rates would increase .50 cents because of the high fuel prices. Rick asked that everyone help out so that we could save fuel. Jonathan said he was going to loose some weight.
